A SIGNIFICANT MOVE.

Turners' Building and Loan Association Has Faith to Expand,

AND INCREASE STOCK FOURFOLD.

A German Organization Marks a Building Boom and Acts.

THEY DON'T WANT THEIR OLD CHARTER

The stockholders of the Turners' Building | advert and Loan Association of this city will hold and Loan Association of this city will hold a meeting to consider the advisability of increasing the capital stock of the company from $25,000 to $100,000. The association was incorporated in 1884, and the issue of stock

J. W. WALLACE, 622 Penn avenue. is limited by charter to 2,500 shares at $10 each. At present there are 224 members, McALLISTER & SHEIBLER, 5th av. & Atwood st. and a total issue of 2,470 shares—but 30 below the limit. The officers are in receipt of numerous applications for stock, and, encouraged by past success, feel that the possibilities of the association are crippled by the present limitation; hence the proposed increase.

Jacob Spohn, No. 2 Carson street.

H. A. DUNALDSON, 170 Carson street.

A. J. KAERCHER, 50 Federal street.

FRED H. EGGERS 4 SON, Ohio and Chestnut sts. sociation are crippied by the present similarity, being the proposed increase. J. F. STEVENSON, Arch and Jackson streets. Should the application be refused the society intend to apply for a new charter, to enable them to do business on a larger scale. The present charter has yet 20 years to run.

the following very satisfactory standing:
Loans on mortgages, $14,236; loans on notes, $16,425. The withdrawals have been $7,151,25; the expenses were $215.95, and the net profit for the year $3,574.22.

The object of the association in increasing its capital stock is to loan money to members, upon the payment of a certain sum, to be used for building purposes, taking a first mortgage upon the property, which sum is to be paid by weekly or monthly payments with interest, just as in the case of other building and loan associations. Should the mortgagee find it convenient to complete his part of the contract, he may dispose of his part of the contract, he may dispose of his interest in the property by guaranteeing the society from loss.

John L. Sullivan passed through this city yesterday on his way East. When it was quietly whispered about that the champion slugger was on board, a few people gathered in front of his car, but failed to see any more of the big fellow than 'he more curious who attempted to bribe the porter on guard to indicate where the sleeping hero

Mrs. Beckley is Missing.

C. F. Beckley, of Philadelphia, came to Pittsburg yesterday in search of his lost wife. She left Philadelphia last Sunday to visit Mrs. Addington, of Green Tree borough, in this county. She arrived on Sun-day night and stopped at the St. Charles Hotel. She left the next morning, and nothing has been heard of her.

The undersigned having disposed of the Franklin Flouring Mills, at West View, to Mr. James W. Breen, would request a continuance for my successor of the patronage so liberally bestowed on me for the past 20 years.

The undersigned having purchased the above plant is now prepared to offer to bakers and dealers generally the choicest rye flour in this market at heterometers and to in this market at bottom rates, and to grocers, dealers and families a strictly cheice winter wheat and graham flour. To dairymen, liverymen, etc., prime mill feed is offered at prices that cannot be duplicated elsewhere. Quotations on application. Where. Quotations on application. Respectfully, James W. Breen.
